SIGNING FOOD-FOR-DEFENSE PLEDGES BEGINS IN THIS COUNTY WEDNESDAY, NOV. 19

Signing of Food-For-Freedom pledges got underway in Collin County November 19, according to R. J. Wilson Chairman of the Collin county USDA Defense Board, who has returned from a district defense meeting at Dallas.

Similar meetings, explaining the 1942 AAA and Food-For-Freedom programs, were held throughout the State at the same time to get food production in full swing, he said.

The production pledge is included in the 1942 farm plan sheet which will be used in mapping out the AAA program on individual farms. The plan sheet is the official AAA notice of 1942 cotton and wheat acreage allotments, yields and marketing quotas.

"Farmers should remember that the signing of the production pledge is not the important phase of the Food-For Freedom campaign. It's the follow through, delivering the goods that will make the difference," Mr. Wilson said in explaining the responsibility of Collin county farmers in meeting goals.

County quotas in the Food-For-Freedom campaign include: a 9 percent increase in milk production, 10 per cent increase in hogs marketed and slaughtered, 18 percent increase in beef cattle, 8 per cent increase in feed grains, (oats, rye barley and grain sorghum), 8 percent increase in eggs and 33 per cent increase in family gardens. Farmers will indicate on the plan sheet the amount of production on the above products to be expected of them for 1942.

Outline of the 1942 AAA farm program to assist farmers in planning crops for mximum benefit payments will be made at the same time production pledges are signed.

Necessary erosion-resisting acreage and soil-building practices will be indicated in other sections of the farm plan sheet. For 1942, an acreage of erosion-resisting crops or land uses equal to 25 percent of the cropland is required for full payment with respect to allotment crops. Payments are made in proportion to performance under this phase of the program.

Soil-building practices, which are carried out to earn soil-building payments, are similar to those outlined under previous AAA programs, Mr. Wilson said.

"For years, we've been fighting soil-erosion. Farmers should remember that more than ever next year. We have the practices and the money under the 1942 program to carry out more soil-building work. Besides the food campaign, next year should be our banner soil-building year," the chairman declared.

General plan of campaign calls for completion of all Food-For-Freedom pledges during November. Following the sign-up county tabulations will be sent to the state office. Expected production for 1942 will then be forwarded to Secretary of Agriculture Wickard.

Farm plan sheets were to be in the communities Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 19, 20, 21 and 22nd. All farm operators are required to sign a planning sheet for the farm he operated in 1941. Farmers should call on their community committeeman on one of the above dates and receive assistance in filling out the 1942 Farm Defense Sheet

Agents Of Texas Cooperating In Defense Program

In their plan of work, outlined for 1942, the County Agricultural Agents of Texas will cooperate closely with the Government's defense program, doing everything possible to encourage farmers to increase the production of food and feed, particularly milk, eggs, corn, barley and oats.

The part the County Agents of seventeen North Texas Counties will play in this concerted effort the coming year was outlined at the quarterly meeting of the Agents of those counties held at Dallas Monday. The meeting continued all day. Collin County was represented by Agent Jack McCullough and Assistant Agent V. C Andrews, both of whom submitted their plan of work for 1942.

Every county in this district of Texas was represented, agent McCullough said, and he considered the meeting of utmost importance.

G. W. Orms, District Agent, of College Station, presided at the meeting and led the discussions. A representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Washington addressed the meeting, explaining what the Government expected the Agricultural Agents to do to assist in the country's broad defense program.

Sixty prominent dairy farmers of the Blue Ridge Community met at the school house in Blue Ridge Tuesday night and spent two hours or more discussing plans for increasing milk production as a national defense measure. It was one of a series of similar meetings scheduled for Collin County during the next few weeks.

Instructive talks were made by Emmett Dobbs of Cabell's, Inc., of McKinney and V. C. Andrews, Assistant County Agricultural Agent, after which there was a general round table discussion. Much interest was manifested. Many questions regarding the government's defense program were asked and answered and the group pledged its hearty cooperation in doing everything possible to aid in the defense of this country and in helping Great Britain and other countries now resisting axis oppression.

North Collin Couple Seriously Hurt In Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Godwin, each about 32, were seriously injured early Monday night when their car and a Northbound interurban collided at Foster Stop, one and one-half miles South of Anna. The Godwin car, going East, was dragged a considerable distance from the scene of the wreck, according to Deputy Sheriffs Dan Rike and Euel Ford, investigating officers.

Riding in a car immediately behind the Godwin car, were their three young daughters, aged 11, 9 and 7, who witnessed the accident, but who were unharmed. The car in which they rode was driven by Mr. Godwin's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Godwin were brought to the McKinney City Hospital in two ambulances of the Crouch Funeral Home of this city. Mrs. Godwin, who remained in an unconscious condition several hours following the accident, and who was critically injured, received a broken left leg, broken jaw and shoulder and internal injuries. Mr. Godwin, who was conscious, received a badly injured left arm and leg, and cuts about the face.

E. Summers, 310 West Texas Street, Denison, was driver of the interurban, figuring in the accident, the investigating officers said.

McKinney Man Is Named President Of Farm Bureau

J. Boyd Webb of McKinney was elected President of the Collin County Farm Bureau, succeeding Charles Dooley of Plano and other officers were chosen for 1942 at the annual meeting of the Bureau, held at the Princeton School Tuesday night, November 18. Charles Akins of Princeton was elected Vice President and Gerald Sonntag of Frisco Secretary-Treasurer, the latter succeeding T. S. (Pat) Murphy, of McKinney.

About two hundred members of the Bureau were welcomed to Princeton by J. W. Neal, prominent banker, who headed the Princeton delegation who served as hosts to the farmers from all sections of the county. Charles Dooley, the retiring President; George Jenkins of Celina, Mr. Webb and Mr. Murphy of McKinney responded to the welcome. Resolutions were adopted expressing the sincere appreciation of the splendid services rendered the Bureau by the officers whose terms expired that night. It was decided to elect the five Directors for 1942 at the December meeting, the time and place to be announced later.

One o fthe highlights of the meeting was an address by E. R. Alexander of Waco, Manager of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, who explained to the farmers what the Government wanted them to do to help increase production of essential foods and feeds, such as milk, eggs, pork and beef, corn, barley and oats the coming year as a national defense measure. His remarks were augmented by Jack McCullough, County Agricultural Agent. A motion was passed that the members of the County Bureau cooperate to the fullest extent with all agencies of the Government in the broad program of national defense.

After describing what the Government wanted the farmers to do to aid in increased production of essential foods and field crops, Mr. Alexander declared that the farmers also should be given every consideration so that they will be placed on a parity with industry and labor in the matter of a fair return for their efforts. He made it plain that he did not want the farmers to take advantage of the situation and try to get exorbitant profits, but he did believe they should be given the same consideration as other interests in this country.

Mr. Alexander, who is a Professor at A. and M. College, was given a leave of absence to serve as Manager of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation and is touring the State conferring with farm groups. He said that the Texas Federation now has 16,000 farmers enrolled, which is the largest membership in its history, and he believes that with organization and the proper guidance the farmers of Texas wil receive their just rewards. "I know that they will produce whatever the Government wants, "he concluded, "and I feel just as confident that they will get a square deal from our Government."

YOUR HOME TOWN

SELECTEES.

EIGHTY-FOUR COLLIN County young men will answer their country's call in December, when they will leave for army induction centers and service in the nation's peacetime army. As usual, they will be given a patriotic program prior to their departure, showing that McKinney and Collin County are proud of them.

FALL FLOWERS.

DO YOU HAVE ANY BEAUtiful fall flowers in bloom at your home? We ask this question after looking out our window at home and viewing the lovely blossoms in bloom at our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Kever. There are pretty yellow chrysanthemums, marigolds, and other flowers that add to the beauty of the scene. If you have flowers in bloom at your home you can be assured that others besides your own family are enjoying them.

REV. AND MRS. MILTON GREER.

IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT to choose the loveliest yard in McKinney at this season of the year, because so many residents have gorgeous fall blossoms that are worth driving by to see. But there is one home that we can not refrain from mentioning. It is that of Rev. and Mrs. Milton Greer, living at the corner of North Kentucky and West Heard Streets in this city. Surrounding their new home, as well as in their spacious yard, you will find an elaborate and beautiful array of fall flowers of all descriptions and hues. We have admired this beautiful yard for some time and would feel guilty if we did not call it to your attention. The beauty that will greet your gaze will more than reward your for your efforts in going by to see this pretty scene.

McKINNEY BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB.

CONGRATULATIONS TO the newly-elected officers of the McKinney Business Men's Club, headed by Chairman F. D. Perkins, Vice Chairman A. M. Scott, Secretary Roy Largent and Treasurer W. Sims Cameron. The officers and directors, named at a recent meeting, anticipate a most successful year for the membership of the club.

APPRECIATIVE.

PROOF THAT THE OFFICers and men from Camp Barkley, at Abilene, who passed through McKinney the past summer en route to the war games in East Texas and Western Louisiana, appreciated the many courtesies extended them by McKinney citizens in a two-night entertainment, was given by Lieutenant Katz of the 179th Medical Detachment, 45th Division, of Camp Barkley, who recently visited Clyde W. Clack, Manager of the Community Natural Gas Company in this city. When the soldiers were being entertained in McKinney, Lieutenant Katz and Mr. Clack became acquainted. So, when the Army Lieutenant was on leave in Dallas recently, he came up to McKinney to visit Mr. Clack and to again thank him and all other McKinney citizens for their wonderful entertainment accorded Uncle Sam's men. He declared that nowhere along the route from Camp Barkley to the war games, did the citizens treat them any nicer and with more hospitality than in McKinney.

MR. AND MRS. J. G. PARSONS.

Defense Program Has Effect On Egg Market In City

Fresh country eggs are becoming more and more scarce as the holidays draw near, according to McKinney produce men. Some said they find it exceedingly difficult to buy enough to meet their demand right now, and the price of strictly fresh eggs ranged around 33 cents a dozen here Tuesday. They attribute this to three reasons. First, the hens are not laying at this season of the years as they do in other seasons and, second, the demand for eggs for making cakes, candies and other dishes for the holidays is very high at this particular time. And the third reason and an unusual one is the great demand for eggs coming from Camp Wolters, Camp Bowie and other Texas military centers, where the Army includes eggs in the daily diets of all soldiers.

Workers Should Check On Social Security Number

If a worker is employed by an individual or firm which he knows does not have a record of his social security account number, it is his duty to call the employer's attention to this oversight, according to Ernest L. Tutt, Manager of the Dallas office of the Social Security Board.

"The employer must have the worker's account number in order to make his quarterly wage report to the Collector of Internal Revenue; and unless the employer has a record of the worker's account number or unless it is secured later, no credit can be given to the worker for the wages paid him during that quarter."

"Furthermore,' 'it was explained by Mr. Tutt, "if the employer sends in his quarterly wage report with the name of the worker without his account number, it causes additional expense to the employer and to the Social Security Board because the account number must be secured and recorded on the report."

Wage credits are posted to the worker's social security account number, and unless the account number accompanies the employer's wage report, the worker stands to lose his credits. This eventually may result in his losing at least part of his old-age and survivors insurance benefits.

The Dallas office of the Social Security Board is located at 506 U. S. Terminal Annex Building. Workers may secure account number cards and other information which they desire concerning the administration of the social security program at this office. Individuals desiring such information are always welcome at the office, Mr. Tutt stated.

Work Going On In Reemployment Program Here

Negro organizations and leaders in each community in Texas are urged to offer their services to the reemployment program of the Selective Service System as it affects returning negro soldiers, according to a statement issued today by General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director.

Chambers of Commerce and other similar community organizations, as well as civic leaders throughout the State, General Page said, are working with the reemployment committeemen affiliated with each local board, and with the State Employment Service offices throughout Texas, in handling employment problems of men as they are released from active service.

"With this kind of team-work, and treating each local case as a community problem," he said, "it should be possible to take care of every man in a prompt and satisfactory manner."

It is anticipated, General Page said, that since the employment of the preponderance of returning negro ex-service men will be absorbed by white employers, negro "reemployment committees," being conversant with local social and employment conditions, could perform an effective service by acting as liaison between local chambers of commerce and other agencies in obtaining jobs for the returning negro soldiers.

Explaining the procedure for providing civilian employment for ex-service men in Texas, General Page said:

"All returning soldiers are instructed to get in touch with their local board reemployment committeeman as soon as they reach their homes. These committeemen will have received data from Washington concerning each man—his civilian occupational skill, training and experience, as well as his service record—well in advance of his return and will transmit this information to the nerest State Employment Service."

It will be the function of these voluntter negro "reemployment committees" to assist their local board reemployment committeeman and the State Employment Service in the employment problems of negro selectees who are now returning to civil life, he said.

General Page pointed out that all local board reemployment committeemen, as well as all other committees and organizations working with the Selective Service System in the employment phase of the National Defense Program, are serving without pay.

"Their compensation," he said, "is found in the knowledge that they are rendering a patriotic and highly important personal service in the defense of their country though this direct support of our armed forces."

Ray Simpson Is Being Transferred To Denver, Colo.

Ray Simpson has arrived in McKinney for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Simpson. Private Simpson, who velunteered his services to Uncle Sam October 15, last year, has been stationed at Kelly Field, San Antonio. He is on a ten day furlough here, after which he will proceed to Lowry Field, at Denver, Colorado, where he is being transferred. He will be with the Air Corps Photographic School at that place, leaving Monday for his new army quarters. Ray is a McKinney High School graduate and attended Texas Tech at Lubbock for three years. He likes army life fine, he says. Ray's many friends in McKinney are mighty glad to see him again and to know that he is doing so well in the army.

Greater Milk Production For Peacetime Army

Urgent need for greater milk production to supply the nation's peacetime army was stressed by E. W. Dobbs of Cabell's Inc., in a forceful talk before the members of the Collin County Pure Bred Livestock Association at the monthly meeting Saturday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Mr. Dobbs said the Government is asking all dairy farmers to do their utmost to increase production by scientific feeding of dairy cows. The present output in this section, he said, is barely sufficient to supply the normal domestic demand and he appealed to the livestockmen to do something about it, as the situation was serious.

Joe C. Moore of Melissa, President of the Association, who presided, announced that an auction sale of registered Jerseys will be held Tuesday, November 18, at the Oak Lawn Farm at Denison and urged all dairymen interested to attend.

Others to address the meeting included W. Hammond Moore, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; Jack McCullough, County Agricultural Agent and Miss Charlotte Boyce, County Home Demonstration Agent. They appealed to the livestockmen to do their best to increase the production of both milk and eggs in this county.

Mr. Dobbs announced that an important meeting of Collin County dairymen will be held in the District Courtroom here Tuesday, November 25, to discuss the milk shortage and to hear discussions of the subject by experts from A and M. College.

In a message from the A. A. A. the livestockmen were urged to plant all available land, not planted in cotton next year, to corn and other feed crops.

It was decided the last meeting of the year, when officers will be elected, will be held Saturday afternoon, December 20 in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and at that time members will be treated to a barbecue.

The following were appointed to arrange for the feast: Secretary W. T. Dungan, McKinney; E. W. Dobbs, McKinney; Dock Haggard, Plano and Mrs. Ammie Wilson, Plano.

In charge of the program for the meeting will be Clyde Haggard, Plano; W. Hammond Moore, McKinney, and Joe C. Moore, Melissa.

Noah Majors, former McKinney boy who is now Manager of the Continental (Conoco) Service Station at Grand Prairie, was in the city Tuesday shaking hands with friends, all of whom were glad to see him. We appreciate the fact that he took time out to call at this office. We are always glad to welcome him.

DEFENSE BOND Quiz

Q. Can unions undertake the sale and distribution of Defense Savings Bonds?

A. Yes. Many unions, in connection with payment of dues, sell members Defense Savings Stamps, exchangeable for Bonds.

Q. Other than payroll allotments, is there any way employers can aid in the Defense Savings Program?

A. One means is to give employees Christmas and other bonuses in Defense Savings Bonds or Stamps.

Note.—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also Stamps are now on sale at retail stores.

Q. What simple and satisfactory way is provided for all of us to express our gratitude for being Americans?

A. The means is the purchase of Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps—available to almost every man, woman, and child. Ownership of even a 10-cent Stamp carries the satisfaction of knowing you have helped the Nation to arm.

Q. What denominations of Defense Savings Stamps are on sale at retail stores?

A. Stores are concentrating on selling 10-cent and 25-cent Stamps, in order to get a maximum number of customers to participate in the Defense Savings Program. Many stores also carry 50-cent, $1, and $5 Stamps. Stamps of all denominations may be purchased at post offices.

Note.—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also Stamps now are on sale at retail stores.

Q. When will the "drive" to sell Defense Savings Bonds begin?

A. There will be no "drive." Many people think of the Defense Savings Program as like the Liberty Loan campaigns of the first World War, which were conducted for stated periods to raise specific quotas. The Defense Savings Program is a long-range, continuing effort to stimulate the public to buy more and more Defense Bonds and Stamps month by month, and is essentially a program to promote mass savings, as well as to provide money for defense.

Q. What is the new tipping idea spreading among salesmen?

A. Use of Defense Saving Stamps, which are given to bellboys, taxi drivers, porters, and waiters instead of cash.

Note.—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also Stamps are now on sale at most retail stores.

Q. Why is the national income going up and how much has it risen?

A. Government spending for defense is the reason. Currently this scheduled spending is at the rate of more than a billion dollars a month, bringing wide employment and higher wages in many industries. The national income is well over $10,000,000,000 higher this year than it was last year.

Q. What is a Defense Stamp Bank?

A. It is a sales outlet for Defense Stamps established by a company with a large personnel for the convenience of employees, making it easy for them to buy Savings Stamps.

Note.—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also Stamps are now on sale at most retail stores.

McKINNEY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOV. 20, 1941.

With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right.—Abraham Lincoln.

Facts worth remembering: Oats, barley, wheat or rye grass pasture is so high in protein that very little protein feed is needed in the grain mixture for dairy cows.

Texas farmers are not asleep at the switch: Fertilizer sales in Texas for the 1940-41 season totaled 115,850 tons as against 107,950 tons for the previous year. The increase was distributed largely over the Northeastern part of the State.

Texas' pecan crop this year will be only a little more than half the size of last year's harvest, the Agriculture Department forecasts. The 1941 Texas production was estimated at 21,390,000 pounds as compared with 41,000,000 in 1940. For the nation as a whole, however, the pecan prospects were good with a crop of 84,579,000 pounds forecast. Production in 1940 totaled 88,426,000. Estimates for other States for 1941 and production in 1940 included: Louisiana 3,150,000 and 4,514,000; Oklahoma 30,100,000 and 22,230,000.

E. S. Cummings of Abilene was elected President and Grover C. Cole of Fort Worth, Secretary of the Baptist Brotherhood of Texas at the close of the organization's convention in Abilene. The re-employment of R. A. Springer of Dallas as Executive Secretary was recommended to the General Baptist Convention. Members of the new Advisory Committee are Vernon Shaw of Snyder, Earl B. Smyth of Dallas, J. D. Buster of Sherman, A. J. Holt of Waco and Thomas Tyson of Corsicana.

COTTON FARMERS VOTE IN FIFTH REFERENDUM.

For the fifth consecutive year, Texas cotton farmers will vote in a cotton marketing quota referendum, Fred Rennels, Assistant Administrative officer of the AAA in Texas, has announced.

The voting date has been set for Saturday, December 13, and quotas will be not in effect on the 1942 crop unless approved by two-thirds of the eligible producers who vote in the referendum, he said.

If quotas are in effect, farmers planting within acreage allotments may market all cotton grown on their allotments. Regardless of weather quotas are approved, conservation phases of the AAA program will remain the same.

Mr. Rennels says that cotton is one of the surplus crops for which no increase is asked in the Food-For-Freedom campaign. With restricted world markets the United States has on hand a supply of about twice the size of recent crops.

Approval of marketing quotas to help adjust the surplus will make possible continued use of loans. Under provisions of the AAA Act of 1938, as amended, loans are prohibited when quotas are rejected by producers.

Collapse of foreign markets and the consequent drop in American exports from 6.2 million bales to 1.1 million bales, together with the fact that there is already enough cotton on hand to fill an extra year's needs, highlight the cotton situation. Since the slump is due primarily to war and naval blockades, cotton exports probably will not increase any great extent during the present season.

THE RED CROSS APPEAL.

On the night of October 16, the U. S. destroyer Kearney, proceeding in the North Atlantic off Iceland, was struck by a torpedo. Among the injured was Chief Boatswain's Mate Leonard Frontakowski. His life depended on the immediate arrival of blood plasma for an emergency transfusion. While another destroyer steamed to the side of the stricken Kearney, carrying a naval surgeon, a plane loaded with blood plasma donated by Red Cross volunteers took off from an undesignated Iceland air base.

The dramatic story of how the plane dropped the precious plasma to the Kearney and how it saved the life of Leonard Frontakowski has been told in the news columns of the nation's press. It is well, however, to stress that the Red Cross was on the job with traditional promptness. The needs of our sailors in their dangerous North Atlantic assignment were anticipated.

The Red Cross today is appealing to the nation for membership support. This support is needed so vitally that Red Cross leaders are asking for a membership comparable to that of the first World War when more than 18,000,000 adult Americans expressed their belief in the Red Cross by becoming members.

The Kearney catastrophe illustrated but one of the dramatic ways in which the Red Cross is organizing its forces for the defense of our country. Quietly and with little fanfare, the Red Cross is at work on the home front as well as the military front. Volunteers have undertaken scores of important responsibilities, of which the blood plasma program is but a single phase.

The Red Cross has started the job of helping the Army and Navy strengthen our defenses. Today your support is asked. So vital is this challenge, we cannot affort to neglect it.

In a Norwegian town the Pastor of the church has been dismissed for changing the water after baptizing a child as Vidkun Adolf.—Springfield Republican.

"Men never recognize dictators in advance," says a columnist. They always seem so young and cute, before the ceremony.—Omaha World-Herald.

One of the great comforts of life in far away Iceland is a constant and unlimited supply of hot water. This is a natural service, and there is nothing a janitor can do about it.—Detroit News.

Uncle Sam's hoard of wheat is at an all-time peak and growing steadily in preparation for the day when a world clamoring for food can get it. Approximately 500,000,000 bushels, valued at more than half a billion dollars, either are owned outright by the United States Government through its financing agency or held as collateral on pending loans. Before the year ends grain men expect at least another 50,000,000 bushels will be added. This wheat, representing most of the nation's biggest surplus on record, is enough to feed Americans and meet all other domestic requirements for almost 10 months. In pre-war years it would have satisfied import demands of the world for a year.

MORE POULTRY.

Texas poultry growers are rallying behind the request of the Federal Government for a 25 per cent increase in the production of poultry, State Commissioner of Agriculture J. E. McDonald announced today.

There were 16,239,842 chickens and turkeys sold in the State during 1940, a report issued by the Commissioner shows. This figure may be substantially increased in 1941 by the new program.

Gonzales County was the leading poultry-producing county in the State, being first in the sale of chickens with 3,162,295 and second in the sale of turkeys with 161,618. Other leaders in chicken sales, in the order of their rank, included Harris County, 280,899; Fayette County, 273,690; McLennan County, 271,343. Total for the State, 12,795,993.

Turkey sales included, besides Gonzales, DeWitt County, 167,824; Lavaca County, 123,357; Fayette County, 94,833. Total for State, 3,443,849.

WHY JOIN THE CHURCH.

I ought to belong to the church because I ought to be better than I am. Henry Ward Beecher once said: "The church is not a gallery for the exhibition of eminent Christians, but a school for the education of imperfect ones."

I ought to belong to the church because of what I can give to it and do through it as well as because of what I may get out of it. The church is not a dormitory for sleepers—it is a front line trench.

I ought to belong to the church because every man ought to pay his debts and do his share toward discharging the obligations of society. The church has not only been the bearer of good news, it has been and it is the supreme uplighting and conserving agency without which "civilization would lapse into barbarianism."

I ought to belong to the church because of memories: memories of things I can never forget; memories of faces that will never fade; memories of vows that are the glory of youth.

I ought to belong to the church because of the hope that lives when promises are dead; hope that paves the way for progress; hope that visions peace and social justice; hope for time and hope for eternity—the great hope that casts its anchors behind Jesus Christ.

I ought to belong to the church because of the strong men in it who need reinforcing; the weak men in it who need encouraging; the rascals in it who need rebuking. If I say that I am not good enough my humility recommends me. If I sit in the seat of the scornful my inactivity condemns me.

I ought to belong to the church, but not until I am ready to join a going concern; not until I am willing to become an active partner with Jesus Christ.—D. A. Poling.

RED CROSS AIDS 217,000 IN DISASTERS DURING PAST 12 MONTHS.

Floods, tornadoes, fires and other disasters last year took the American Red Cross to the scene of 149 disasters where 217,201 persons were given food, shelter, medical attention and rehabilitation assistance, according to W. S. Smith, Chairman of the Collin County Chapter, and Earl Walker, City Red Cross Chairman.

The manner in which the Red Cross was able to answer these calls for disaster relief assistance emphasizes the need for strong membership support at Roll Call time. The drive, launched here this week, extends to every person the opportunity of supporting distaster relief work and the other services of the Red Cross.

The past 12 months fortunately brought no major disasters. Yet during the year the incidence of catastrophe was such that nearly twice the number of persons received Red Cross help compared with the preceding year.

Red Cross disaster relief, a chartered obligation of the Red Cross, is extended those disaster sufferers financially unable to recover disaster losses. If a family suffers complete or partial destruction of their home, the Red Cross steps in to assist in rebuilding or repairing. Likewise, essential household goods and clothing are replaced.

During the past year, the National Red Cross spent nearly $850,000 in its disaster relief operation, most of which was financed by annual Red Cross memberships obtained at Roll Call time. Supplementary funds for relief work was obtained in a few instances from disaster relief funds raised in the stricken communities.

This year the Red Cross again seeks membership support to meet emergency disaster needs. Just what the coming year will bring in the nature of catastrophies, is yet to be seen. Yet, based on Red Cross records, more than 100 disasters in which Red Cross assistance will be needed can be expected. In the event of a major disaster, such as the New England hurricane of 1938 or the Ohio River Floor of the year before, the Red Cross must be prepared with traditional swiftness to meet the needs of those stricken.

This year the American Red Cross is teaching America how to adapt the principles of mass feeding, emergency housing and medical attention to strengthen civil defense. Regional institutes which are conducted throughout the country instruct chapter officials and volunteers in the time-tested principles of emergency relief.

Close cooperation with U. S. Government agencies make it possible for the Red Cross to handle disaster relief operations which have in the past involved as many as 1,000,000 homeless.

Through the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard, the Red Cross can, on an instant's notice, provide necessary boats, planes, cots, blankets and other essentials needed for relief.

Despite this close cooperation, the Red Cross functions as a private organization, solely dependent on public support.

McKinney Defeats Arlington By Score Of 19-14

By FRED DICKINSON AND ZANE ANDERSON.

Rambling George Woods and the McKinney High Lions "turned on the heat" in the last half to blast the Arlington High Colts, 19-to-14, in a District 6AA conference game, here, Friday night.

Coach J. W. (Swede) McMurry's blue-jerseyed lads came out for the last half facing a 14-to-0 deficit as the result of some fancy passing by the Colts' backfield aces, Harvey and Young, but they were ready to go and when the plunging was all over the local lads were ahead 19-to-14 and had the contest well under control.

George Woods was the big gun in the Lion last half splurge. He circled the ends, jarred the Colt line with terrific plunges aimed in all sections and turned in a jam-up defensive game throwing the visiting backs, especially Young, for loss after loss on end sweeps. As in previous games the big fullback, was McKinney's outstanding threat—coming and going.

Woods Scores.

The clinching touchdown which came with the Lions behind, 14-to-13, started from the Colt 45 where Harvey had kicked poorly out of bounds. Ray Hamilton shot a short pass into the sidelines where Orenduff grabbed it on the dead run and ankled on down to the Arlington 13. Woods hammered left tackle for 3. Hamilton made two at the other tackle. Woods plunged through center to the Arlington 6 yard line. Then like a thunderbolt he shot through right tackle and over for the score.

The Colts with two good passers in the backfield—Young, who threw them from the right side and Harvey, an excellent left-hander, had McKinney completely muddled in the first half. A deceptive play, with Young apparently trying to circle right end that wound up with the diminutive halfback throwing long heaves angling across the field, brought two touchdowns in the second quarter. The first one came from the 18-yard line and found Cunningham, an end, wide open with not a McKinney man in sight. Wilemon kicked goal. The second one a few plays later, was to Booker. Altogether it went for 72 yards. Wilemon kicked goal. Those two passes, and another long one of 32 yards from Young to Snider that set up the first touchdown were about all that Arlington had to offer for the night. They never threatened again.

Lions Open Up in Second Half.

Opening the second half, McKinney took over on her own 36-yard line and battered and passed her way to a touchdown, with Woods going over from the Colt 2-yard line. Doyle Royal, McKinney's little end, broke the long string of unsuccessful extra point kicks here, with a beauty that split the uprights. Woods held the ball.

The second Lion score started from the Colt 42. Steady plunging by Woods and Hamilton, mixed with a few passes by the latter, carried to the Colt 25, where Woods took off around left end and went all the way to the 1. He was apparently loose but stumbled and fell just shy of the goal. The Colt line held three times but on the fourth try the big boy shook loose for the score. Royal's kick was blocked.

The Arlington attack was completely bottled up in the last half. Time after time the Colt backs found themselves rushed badly on passes and their end runs which worked nicely in the first half were blocked by an alert line and the clever backing of Woods and Clifton. Ray, a substitute guard, also showed up well in the local line. On offense Woods and Hamilton again bore the brunt o fthe attack. Chapman came through with several nice catches and some good blocking. Dooley, a tackle, played one of the finest games seen here, this year, making a majority of the visitors' tackles.

Lions Meet Sulphur Springs.

The McKinney High School Band and Drum and Bugle Corps of Prof. Stewart Jernigan, gave a splendid exhibition of marching during the few moments given to them during the half. Although there was not so large a crowd there was usually, the McKinney High Cheer Leaders, Miss Belva Welch, head yell leader for the girls, Jack Graves, head yell leader for the boys, and the assistant yell leaders, Anna McClelland, John Brown Murphy, Ann Malone Erwin, and C. J. Adair, kept the McKinney fans giving out snappy yells for the Lions, which pepped the lads up from the beginning of the game.

Coach McMurry's Lions, as well as the McKinney fans, are looking forward to the game here next Friday night, when the Sulphur Springs eleven invades McKinney.

Collin County Poultry Congress To Be Held Here

The Collin County Poultry Congress, first exclusive poultry show ever held in this county, will be held here in January, the exact dates to be decided by a special committee to be appointed by W. Hammond Moore, Secretary of the McKinney Chamber of Commerce and the Collin County Free Fair. The Congress will be held in the Municipal Coliseum, probably two or three days, and will be strictly educational, Mr. Moore said.

Decision to hold the show was reached at a meeting and dinner, sponsored by the Free Fair Association at Woods Cafe recently, and the success of the venture, it is believed, was assured by the calibre of men and women who attended the initial meeting and who pledged their unqualified support.

◆ ◆ ◆

Farm Leaders Show Interest.

Sponsored By Fair.

The Free Fair Association will finance the Poultry Congress and Secretary Moore said there is sufficient money in the treasury to take care of all prizes and other expenses, making it unnecessary to solicit funds for the event.

In line with the idea of making this an educational show and not merely a display of attractive poultry, Mr. Moore said, exhibits of the eight standard breeds of chickens raised in Collin County will be shown as well as standard breeds of turkeys adaptable to this section. Fowls will be shown for their productive value as layers and also as meat fowls and experts from the A. & M. Extension Service will be on hand to explain the qualities that contribute to making the best birds. The exhibits will be classified and ribbons and cash prizes awarded the best entries with this idea in view.

Secretary Moore has also been authorized to appoint a committee of five to direct the plans for the Poultry Congress and a meeting will be held within the next two weeks, when his appointees will be announced.

Thomas H. Hughston announced that those who attend the next meeting will be his guests at dinner at Woods Cafe. The time for this meeting will be announced within a few days.

First Activity Of U. S. Navy Is Made Known

First active participation in the war of the Atlantic by the United States became known Sunday when the Navy captured an Axis merchant vessel flying the United States flag. It happened on November 6 in equatorial waters. The crew attempted to destroy the ship with explosives, but were unsuccessful. Few details were given out, but it was assumed members of the crew were made prisoner by the United States cruiser. The vessel was being brought to an American port to be turned over to a United States Marshal charged with sailing under false colors. The ship was believed to be owned either by Italian or Japanese interests.

From the Russian front comes the report that the German forces have penetrated the outskirts of Tulia, 110 miles South of Moscow, but in other sectors Moscow reports that their counterattacks have continued to force the nazis back and that twenty villages had been recaptured by the Soviets. Severe winter weather has set in, it was said, and this has materially retarded the German advance.

Tokyo dispatches Sunday indicated the Japanese are demanding "hands off" policy by the United States and Great Britain in China and from Chungking comes word that the Chinese are rapidly building defenses for the Burma Road, the only route by which aid can be sent to China.

Most Successful Red Cross Drive In Progress Here

More money will be raised and this will be the most successful Roll Call Drive ever made in McKinney, declared Earl Walker, City Chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call Campaign.

He said that he based this prediction on the splendid reports he has received thus far by the army of workers who started out Armistice Day and will continue their canvassing until Thanksgiving, November 27. More than a hundred prominent men and women of McKinney are conducting this drive.

Friendly rivalry has been created between the various business houses and offices and firms, each trying to be first to make the 100 per cent mark, meaning that all members of the firms and all employes are enrolled in the Red Cross.

McKinney's goal has been fixed by Chairman Walker at 1,200 members, but this does not mean they only want to raise $1,200.00, he said, for many of those enrolling are making much larger contributions.

Chairman Walker also explained that McKinney will turn over to the National Red Cross Fund 50 cents for each member signed up, regardless of the amount of their contributions. The balance will be retained by the Collin County Red Cross Chapter for use in the many and varied Red Cross activities in this county.

He reported to Gov. Coke Stevenson and to the United States Treasury procurement office that the concentration in Dallas has been completed for the fourteen counties surrounding Dallas, including Collin.

"The procedure now is for the Treasury Department to notify the OPM which will designate the smelter to which the aluminum shall be sent," Mr. Sisk said. "The aluminum, now in a yard at the Turtle Creek pumping station, should be on its way within a week or ten days."

Counties which participated in the Dallas concentration are Dallas, Collin, Kaufman, Rockwall, Hunt, Delta, Grayson, Fannin, Lamar, Hopkins, Rains, Van [illegible]

Farm Mortgage Debt Retirement Makes Progress

Better times on Texas Farms and ranches are reflected in the "Most consistent farm mortgage debt retirement in years," said Claude Melton upon his return from a conference of leaders chosen by the boards of directors of 29 National Farm Loan Associations in this territory. The meeting was held in Greenvilel on November 13, the national farm loan association representatives discussing conditions and the 1941-42 plans with officers of the Federal Land Bank of Houston.

Records of the Federal Land Bank reveal foreclosure sales and acquirements of farms, for the year ending September 30, were the smallest since 1931—twenty percent below the previous year. Delinquencies are the lowest in several years.

During the past year in Texas land bank and land bank commissioner loans were made for a total of fourteen million dollars, which is the largest dollar volume since 1935. Total land bank loans in the amount of $10,372,142.00 and land bank commissioner loans in the amount of $2,644,168.00, were outstanding as of September 30, 1941, in the associations represented at this meeting.

Ozona Ranchman Welcome Visitor In City Sunday

Richard Flowers, well known ranch owner of Ozona, Crockett County, visited friends in McKinney Sunday afternoon. Mr. Flowers has been in Dallas for several days, coming on up to McKinney for this welcome visit. Mr. Flowers and Don W. Bagwill, City Editor of these papers, are former classmates at S. M. U., Dallas. This was their first meeting in some ten or twelve years and naturally it was a most pleasant one.

Mr. Flowers, wife and two children reside on their ranch four miles from Ozona, of eight sections, and informed us he has 1,700 head of sheep and some seventy or eighty head of Hereford cattle. Wool prices paid this year are excellent and pleasing to sheep owners throughout the country.

We were agreeably surprised to see our old-time friend and enjoyed talking over old times with him again.

Mrs. R. P. Durham will leave Saturday for a two weeks' visit with relatives in San Antonio.

Crop Insurance On Program For Texas Farmers

Cotton crop insurance is the next big issue for Texas farmers, according to Donald L. Cothran, state cotton insurance supervisor.

Taking precedence over cotton insurance this fall have been rush orders for 1942 special allotments for Food-For-Freedom pledges throughout the state, Cothran explained.

When increased production of foods in the national defense program were called for, county AAA offices faced the gigantic task of issuing 1942 cotton, wheat, rice, peanut and Irish potato allotments to Texas farmers by Nov. 1. Special allotments under AAA farm programs usually reach farmers by early spring, Cothran said in pointing out that all decks had to be cleared for Food-For-Freedom pledges which got underway in Texas Nov. 1.

County listing sheets establishing preliminary crop yields and premium rates are being received in the state office with more expected shortly, the insurance supervisor explained.

After county data have been approved in the state and regional crop insurance offices, Texas cotton farmers will be in position to take out insurance on next year's crop, he said.

Under the program, cotton farmers may insure 75 percent or 50 percent of their established yields against all unavoidable hazards. Total losses will be paid when they occur and partial losses after picking, Cothran explained.

Mrs. Howell Farnsworth and children, Howell, Jr., and Nancy Carol, left Monday for their new home at Malakoff, Texas, to join their husband and father. Mr. Farnsworth has been there for three weeks, being employed in the dry goods department of Kerby Bros. General Merchantile Store. Their many friends regret to see them move, but wish them much happiness in their new home.

THANKSGIVING

Historical Thanksgiving

Many scenes have been written into American history since the first Thanksgiving was observed! Styles have changed. Laws have changed. Science, industry and mechanization have made fast strides in every phase of business and life.

Much has changed. But people remain the same - - and today as generations ago, we still are thankful for the land we live in. For the religious freedom that was made our heritage by those first Americans - - emigrants all, from lands of persecution.

History has seen many changes. But to us in America, there is still much to be thankful for.

Civilian Defense Council Busy

The Civilian Defense Council, with the closest cooperation of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, is speeding up plans for the defense of the civilian population in the event the necessity arises.

One of the first steps was to organize the law enforcement officers of the State, and in Texas the organization has been well organized and district courses in civilian defense were being held all over Texas. A number of two-day sessions have been held in Dallas by city and county law enforcement officers, but the most important yet held will be a six-day intensive study course to be started in Dallas Monday morning, November 17, at 9 o'clock.

Both Chief of Police Ed Blakeman and Sheriff W. E. Button have received urgent invitations to attend the full course as much of it as possible, and both say they will make every effort to attend. Both said they appreciate the importance of the course and they like to have members of their forces attend also. The FBI officials will be in Dallas to explain the methods used in war-torn countries to curb sabotage and fifth column activities and will tell the law enforcement officers what the United States Government has done and is doing along this line. A. P. Kitchen, special FBI Agent, will be in charge of the course next week.

Red Cross First Aid Course In Civilian Defense

The Red Cross is now prepared to offer First Aid courses for Civilian Defense. There are two of these courses, a Standard course for Civilian Defense. There are two of these courses, A Standard course of 20 hours and an Advanced course of 10 hours. They are closely comparable to the First Aid courses regularly offered by the Red Cross, but with emphasis on conditions to which civilians may be subject in war time. More attention is paid to the skills in control of bleeding, in caring for wounds and fractures and to transportation; less to so-called common emergencies. There is extra material on war gases. Course content has been determined in collaboration with the United States Office for Civilian Defense, says James L. Feiser, vice chairman.

According to Howard S. Ware, of McKinney, Chairman of the First Aid Committee of the County Red Cross Chapter, plans have been made to hold these First Aid Courses in this county if there is sufficient interest. Should the courses be held, they will be in charge of Sam Thomas of this city, expert in this line of work, who has held Red Cross First Aid Courses in this city and county on other occasions.

Mr. Ware says that anyone interested in these Red Cross First Aid Courses to contact him, and if there is enough interest shown, the courses will be held in McKinney.

First Aid Instructors holding active Red Cross appointments are authorized to teach these courses and prepared to do so through training already had. The subject matter in the "Red Cross First Aid Textbook" and a supplement on war provided to accompany the textbook will form the basis for all instruction. The customary Red Cross First Aid certificates will be isued for the 20-hour course and for the 10-hour course; provided, in the latter instance, the student holds an active Red Cross Standard or Advanced certificate. When classes for Civilian Defense are reported an identifying notation should be made on the examination record.

"Instructor's Outline—First Aid Course for Civilian Defense" (ARC 1055) and "Advanced First Aid for Civilian Defense" (ARC 1056) set forth in detail the material to be taught and the order of presentation for each course. These Outlines should be secured immediately from the Red Cross Area office by the Chapters for the use of First Aid Instructors who will teach Civilian Defense groups. The Instructors should acquaint themselves completely with the contents, the order of presentation, any change of emphasis, et cetera. Even where Civilian Defense groups have not yet been organized the Chapter should secure enough copies of ARC 1055 and ARC 1056 for complete examination by those who may be most interested.

In addition to the explanation just made on these courses generally, it should be noted in respect to Advanced First Aid for Civilian Defense that this 10-hour course is intended for the supplementary instruction of all members of Emergency Medical Field Units, and for nursing auxiliaries and members of other Civilian Defense Units who have had previous instruction in First Aid. It is designed as a refresher course for the purpose of reviewing and practicing those First Aid proceedures which are the most important in Civilian Defense. Physicians who take this course as a review of First Aid procedures will find the text written in simple language so that they can use it for teaching lay groups.

The Medical Division of the Office of Civilian Defense has suggested that because of the exacting training requirements for Air Raid Wardens this 10-hour course may be interpolated in their instructional curriculum with the understanding that this is considered merely as an introduction to the subject and that it will be subsequently supplemented by first aid training as required for others who have not had previous instruction. No certificate will be given unless the Air Raid Warden has previously completed a 20-hour Red Cross First Aid Course.

If situations should arise where it appears that a member of a Civilian Defense class is not able finanlially to pay for the textbook, the Chapter should make arrangements so that a textbook may be had, either on a loan basis or as outright gift. It is not expected that in any Chapter there should be any considerable number of such cases. The point is, that inability to purchase a textbook should not stand in the way of a member of a Civilian Defense group securing the training that is planned. We are sure that the Chapter will look carefully to this matter.

The Chapter, as it develops its plans for cooperation with the local Office for Civilian Defense, should lose no time in making it known that these First Aid courses for Civilian Defense are now available and there should be no delay in getting instruction under way. Red Cross First Aid training is an all important element in the preparation for Civilian Defense and is so recognized.

Thanksgiving

THE STORY Of The FIRST THANKSGIVING
Imagine that first harvest Thanksgiving in America, more than three hundred years ago. It probably started while families were gathered at someone's home after the day's work. The talk probably turned to events of the day and the bountiful year they've been enjoying . . . and in such an informal way as this, perhaps, they proclaimed the first Thanksgiving! Carrying through their plans was not so simple, for protection against Indians was needed all along the way. But they were successful because they knew all precautions taken for safety could not be too great.
• We, too, are thankful for the Bountiful Blessings that have been ours to enjoy. May the Day be one of Happiness and Contentment for You and Yours.
